TRÜBNER & CO.'S LIST OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.

LESSING, his Life and Writings. By James Sime,

M.A. 2 vols. post 8vo, 350 pages each, with Portraits, handsomely bound in cloth, price 21s.

"It is to Lessing that an Englishman would turn with readiest affection. We cannot but wonder that more of this man is not known among us."—Thomas Carlyle.

ENGLISH AND FOREIGN PHILOSOPHICAL LIBRARY.

Vols. I. to III.

A HISTORY of MATERIALISM. By Professor

F. A. LANGE. Authorised Translation from the German, by ERNEST C. THOMAS. In 3 vols. Vol. I. post 8vo, pp. 350, cloth, price 10s. 6d. [Now ready.]

"The very remarkable work of Lange, 'Geschichte des Materialismus.' A good translation of the latter would be a great service to philosophy in England."—Professor Huxley, in "Lay Sermons," 1st Edition, 1870, p. 371, Note.

"Lange, a non-materialist, in his excellent 'History of Materialism,' to the spirit and letter of which I am equally indebted."—Professor Tyndall, in Address as President of the British Association, Belfast, 1874.

"It should be stated that every section of Dr. Lange's work is followed by a copious body of notes, abounding in references to authorities, and bearing ample testimony to the extensive reading of the author."—Saturday Review.

"We see no reason for not endorsing the translator's judgment that it is 'raised far above the level of ordinary controversial writing by its thoroughness, its comprehensiveness, and its impartiality.'"—Contemporary Review.

"The 'English and Foreign Philosophical Library' could not be more worthily inaugurated than by a translation of Lange's great work."—Mind.

"This is a work which has long and impatiently been expected by a large circle of readers. It has been well praised by two eminent scientists, and their words have created for it, as regards its appearance in our English tongue, a sort of ante-natal reputation."—Scotsman.

"Although it is only a few years since Lange's book was originally published, it already ranks as a classic in the philosophical literature of Germany."—Full Mail Gazette.

"We look forward to the publication of Herr Lange's second volume with no small interest, though, indeed, had we not this to anticipate, the book before us would be valuable as a clear, impartial exposition of materialism, its dangers, the benefits we owe it, and the changes of idea that have operated within its own round of philosophy."—Examiner.

Vols. II. and III. in the press.

Vol. IV.

NATURAL LAW: an Essay in Ethics. By Edith

SIMCOX. 1 vol. post 8vo, pp. 366, cloth, 10s. 6d.

"Its merits are those of a large and general insight, animated by the desire to see the best of everything; even its errors proceed from a combination of qualities in itself rare and desirable, which may be called conscientious enthusiasm."—Full Mail Gazette.

"Miss Simcox deserves cordial recognition for the excellent work she has done in vindication of naturalism, and especially for the high nobility of her ethical purpose."—Athenaeum.

"A book which for the rest is a mine of suggestions."—Academy.

"The writer's highest skill is seen in bringing together aspects of ideas which limit one another, and even seem to conflict, in elucidating the paradoxical side of accepted propositions, and in embodying acute perceptions in elaborate epigrammatic periods."—Examiner.

"This thoughtful and able work is in many respects the most important contribution yet made to the ethics of the evolution theory."—Mind.

Vols. V. and VI.

"Professional reproaches against a book so manly and modest, so evidently truth-loving, so high-minded and devout as this of Mr. Greg's, are but a melancholy imbecility."—Westminster Review.

"This work remains a monument of his industry, his high literary power, his clear intellect, and his resolute desire to arrive at the truth."—Scotsman.

The PHYSICAL BASIS of MIND. By George

HENRY LEWES. 8vo, with Illustrations, pp. 508, cloth, 16s.

CONTENTS:—

THE NATURE OF LIFE—THE NERVOUS MECHANISM—ANIMAL AUTOMATISM—THE REFLEX THEORY.

"We have on former occasions pointed out the singular merit of Mr. Lewes's handling as a popular expounder of the latest results of scientific research. . . . The book itself is one which will inevitably find its way into the hands of every student of mental science who wishes to obtain the freshest view of physiology in its relation to mind."—Saturday Review.

"The distinguishing merit of Mr. Lewes's volume is that it subjects the latest theoretic conclusions of the biological sciences to a criticism which owes its pertinence to soundness of special knowledge, and its force to largeness and clearness of philosophic view. This is a kind of work which few, if any, could have done so well."—Examiner.

LECTURES on WELSH PHILOLOGY. By John

RHYS. Crown 8vo, pp. xii-458, cloth, 12s.

"Mr. Rhys's work is full of information; and, although it literally bristles with vocabularies, its style renders it intelligible to students who have not previously made a special acquaintance with Welsh philology."—Full Mail Gazette.

"These lectures can be confidently recommended not only to all students of Welsh philology, but to all who take an intelligent interest in Celtic studies in general."—Athenaeum.

"In short, Mr. Rhys has put forth a book which is the very best omen for his success in his new post, and for the advancement of Celtic and philological study generally."—Saturday Review.

"To praise a work on Welsh philology by Prof. Rhys would be superfluous. . . . Prof. Rhys has made a valuable contribution not only to Celtic philology, in particular, but to general comparative philology as well."—Prof. A. H. Sayce, in the "Academy."

OSTRICHES and OSTRICH FARMING. By

JULIUS DE MOSENTHAL and JAMES EDMUND HARTING, F.L.S., F.Z.S. 8vo, with 8 Full-page Illustrations and 20 Woodcuts, cloth, 10s. 6d.

"The work of which we give this short notice is appropriately illustrated with pictures of various modes of ostrich hunting, and with figures, beautifully drawn and engraved, of the ostrich, shen, emu, cassowary, and apteryx."—Zoologist.

"This highly interesting volume will attract the general reader as well as the naturalist and trader."—Full Mail Gazette.

"This is a joint work, in which one writer exhibits a good deal of research, while the other details the results of his practical observations at the Cape of Good Hope."—Saturday Review.

"We are taking our facts from the entertaining monograph of Messrs. Mosenthal and Harting."—Spectator.
